October 9, 2012

Marking the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War, reenactors from the Department of the Pacific, Federal Battalion (DPFB) and Nevada Civil War Volunteers (NCWV) hosted a civil war reenactment at Fort Churchill in Silver Springs, Nevada. The fort is an actual Civil War era fort, built in 1860 to protect the Territory of Nevada. During the war, it served as a muster point for Federal troops and protected vital communications routes between east and west.
