

The Reno Veterans Day Parade 11/11/2014 with the General Willian Passmore Carlin – Camp 25 participating in 2014.

Veterans Day Parade Tuesday in Downtown Reno

Posted: Nov 10, 2014 6:23 PM PDT Updated: Nov 11, 2014 12:48 PM PDT

From the City of Reno:

The City of Reno will host its annual Veterans Day Parade on Tuesday, November 11, 2014. The opening ceremonies will begin at 11 a.m. at the historic Virginia Street Bridge in downtown Reno.

The parade is scheduled to start at 11:11 a.m. and will move north on Virginia Street and end at the Fifth Street intersection.

This year's theme is "150 Years of Liberty through Service." The Grand Marshall is Army veteran Major John Riggs, who is a 1964 graduate of Reno High School. Mayor Bob Cashell is scheduled to speak prior to the start of the parade.

This will be the 16th consecutive year the City of Reno has hosted a Veterans Day Parade. There are 75 entries this year, including many local veterans associations, service groups, and high school bands.

For more information, call 334-2414.

Veterans Day evening event:

The Colin Ross Senior Music program will present a Veterans Day concert and workshop on Tuesday evening at the Neil Road Recreation Center (3925 Neil Road). Doors open at 5 p.m.; dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. The concert/workshop is from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Admission is free for veterans (with a VA card) and a guest; $5 for non-veterans. Pre-registration, which can be done by calling 334-2262, is recommended.

City of Reno offices closed:

The City of Reno administrative offices at Reno City Hall will be closed in observance of Veterans Day.

From the City of Reno

The General William Passmore Carlin – Camp 25 Participated in the 11-11-2014 Reno Veterans Day Parade with their Grand Marshal, Commander John A. Riggs (MAJ NV Army National Guard Reserve).

Photo by Christi Hines-Coates, NV Civil War Volunteers.

General Reno Monument downtown Reno. 150th Anniversary of Nevada in the War of the Rebellion. Nevada became the 36th State in the Union as “Battle Born.”

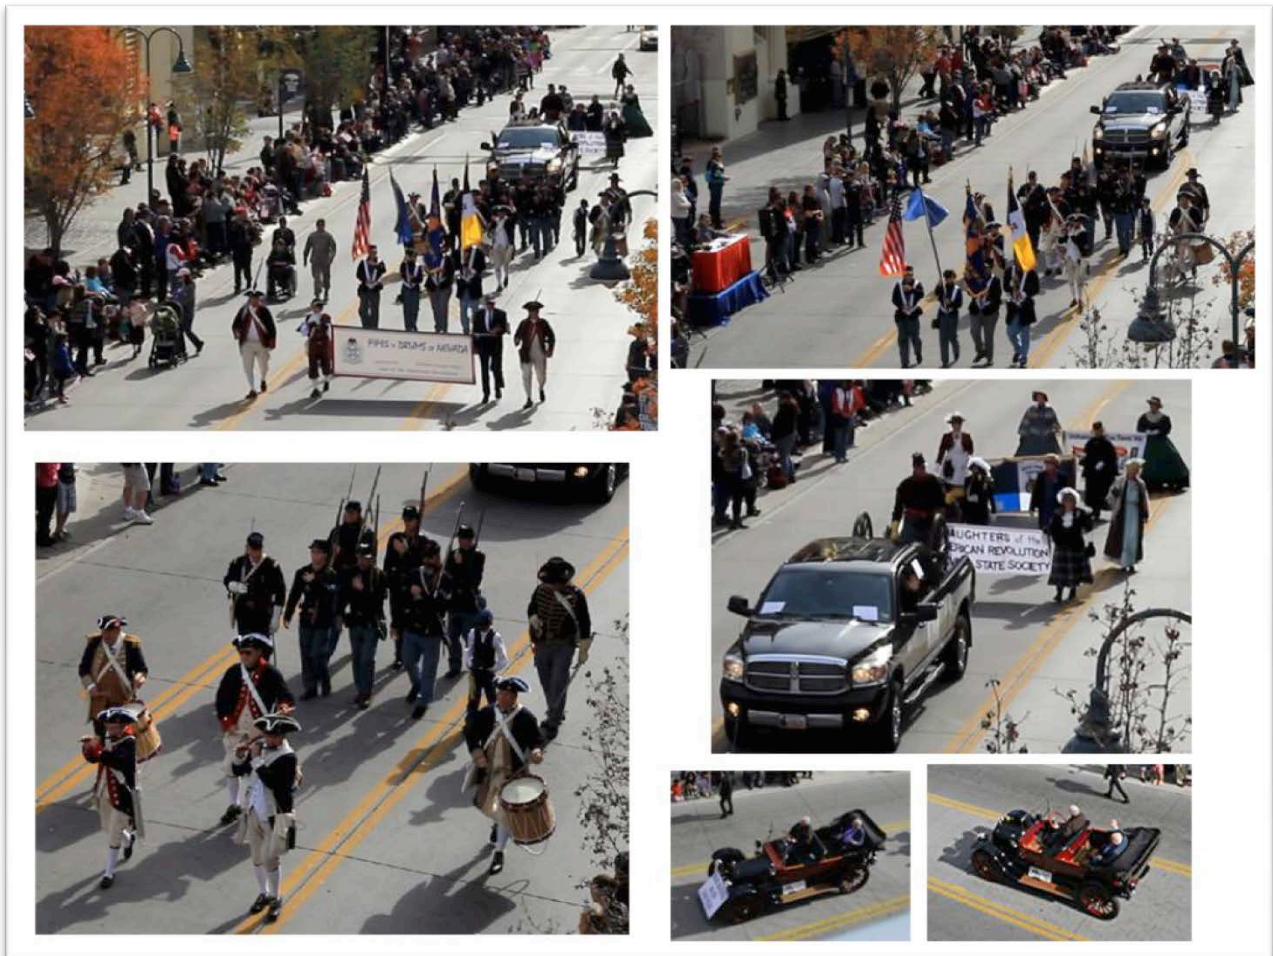

Camp 25 Commander with Brother Col. Ed Carson, Committee Member of the Reno Veterans Day Parade in Reno, NV. He wrote the parade Motto! “LIBERTY THROUGH SERVICE.” City of Reno, NV.

The wreath that was dropped in the Truckee River by Post #1 of the American Legion in Reno.

Brother Ray Ahrenholz was the parades official bugler. He played TAPS and will do so again in 2015.

Mayor of Reno Bob Cashall and Grand Marshal Major John Riggs Camp 25 Commander right before the parade started. The Mayor stepped down the next day as our Mayor.

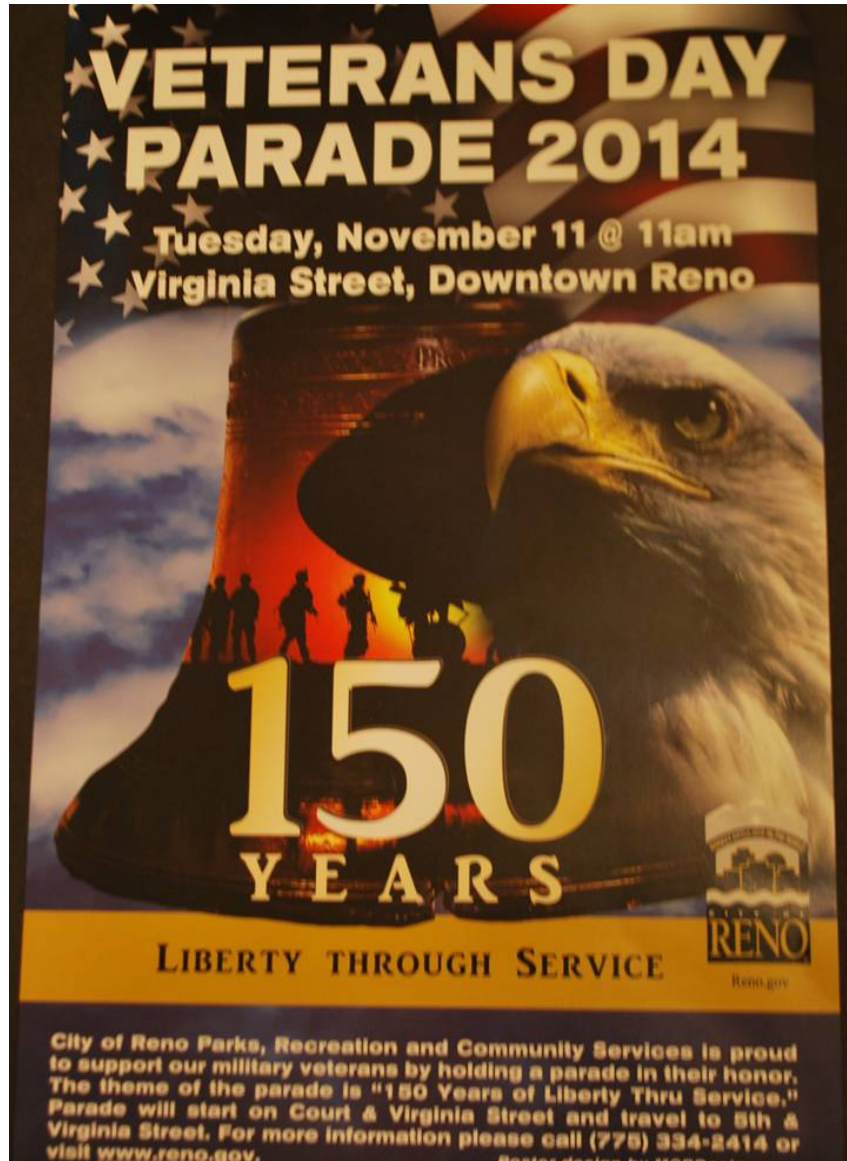

Looks just like my former P&P car when I was with the Department of Public Safety before I retired. It has the badge and stripe but when I had it, they were removed for plain clothes cover. It was so pretty though everyone knew it was my car.

Congressman Mark Amodei's staff honored our Camp for the outstanding work we do for the Civil War.

Photos by John Riggs and Edward Carson. Photo of Commander Riggs in the car from the movie Titanic is by Christi Hines-Coates.

VETERANS DAY
PARADE 2014

Tuesday, November 11 @ 11am
Virginia Street, Downtown Reno

150
YEARS

LIBERTY THROUGH SERVICE

RENO
Reno.gov

City of Reno Parks, Recreation and Community Services is proud to support our military veterans by holding a parade in their honor. The theme of the parade is "150 Years of Liberty Thru Service." Parade will start on Court & Virginia Street and travel to 5th & Virginia Street. For more information please call (775) 334-2414 or visit www.reno.gov.

Poster design by NANO