Notes: Sculpture depicting Regimental Quartermaster Ira Barnes Dutton (aka, Brother Joseph Dutton) in Civil War dress uniform. Dutton served in the 13 th Wisconsin Infantry from 9 Sept. 1861 to 13 Dec. 1865. Converting to Catholicism in 1883, he changed his name to honor St. Joseph. He came to Molokai in 1886 to devote the remainder of his life to service in the leper colony on the island. Dutton died in Kalawao in 1931. The sculpture depicts Dutton wearing the frock coat of a Major-General and shoulder boards of a 4-star general. The kepi appears to display crossed cannons, signifying artillery (Dutton was Infantry). This is a twin sculpture to one installed at Kamalo, Molokai in August 2013 (HI-Maui-Molokai-Kamalo-Statue-Dutton-2013).
